

PROUDLY PRESENTS

Aldrig lika konstig och ensam igen by Helena Davidsson

Helena Davidsson's new album "Aldrig lika konstig och ensam igen", presents an empathetic encounter between the Swedish singer-song writer tradition and improvisation jazz. Helena's songs portray the wing strokes of bats and swallows, the rolling of the seas, and the deep longing to be set free.

Departing from Swedish singer-song writer tradition, and developing and deepening the music through the musicians' individual expressions, the album communicates a strong sense of presence. "Helena initiated every session by reading the lyrics aloud. We all took our personal experience of the words with us into our performance", says Henrik Cederblom who produced, mixed and performs on the album.

Helena's lyrics envision nature embracing the whole universe – the sound of a bumble-bee falling asleep, a golden glistening sun shower.

All music is written by singer and composer Sofia Pettersson, apart from 'Svala fladdermus', composed by multimusician Olle Linder. Helena, singer and lyricist, has previously released the album 'men det finns kor', also recorded and produced by Henrik Cederblom at Studio Epidemin.
